Notes by Sybil MacLachlan. Capt John Read came to America in 1660 from Devonshire England. He settled on a tract of land in New England given to him by King Charles II. His grandson Moses Read emigrated to Canada in 1784 as an United Empire Loyalist and was granted land. His son Obadiah settled in North Augusta, near Brockville, Ont. In 1911 I visited the old stone homestead and buying ground with my parents, travelling then from Brockville by horse and buggy. Mother's cousin Edith Read, a retired nurse, was living there at the time. Obadiah married Sybil Hutcheson who was a Quaker from Pennsylvania. We still have her portrait - oil painting. Their son Russell Henry, my grandfather, married Bessie Rattenbury in 1861. Her home was in Clinton Ont., which was then known as Rattenbury's Corners, and her father was the owner of the hotel where I have visited but it was burned down in recent years. Ian and I spent a night in a new hotel in 1970, built across the road from the original site. We also visited the Clinton cemetery where many of my forebears are buried.

My mother Kate Marian was one of ten children and was born in Port Hope Ont., and in the 1930's we were able to locate the house on the East side of the town. The Reads moved back to Clinton and my grandfather went out to Winnipeg some time later, was lost in a blizzard en route to visit some Ontario friends at Christmas, and died in a Winnipeg hospital from pneumonia, as a result. He was buried there. My grandmother moved to London Ont., and lived with her eldest daughter Minnie, Mrs John Callander. Mother and Daddy were married at her home in November 1900.

On my Father's side. John Spencer was born in Dorset England, on May 4th. 1786. In 1809 he married Rebecca Cave, born April 4th, 1789. They emigrated to Canada, arrived in Quebec City. As they were getting off the ship, a very valuable cheese was dropped into the St. Lawrence. They founded their home on a farm near the village of Brooklin and the town of Whiteby, Ont. They had 5 sons and 3 daughters. The youngest son, Henry Herbert, was my grandfather. He was the first to import pure bred Dorset sheep to Canada. In old letters from his brother Robert, written in 1875, from Puddlehills is recorded a shipment of sheep on "Number 2" a sailing ship under the command of Capt. Mark-master from Poole-describing their location "down in the 'hole'" where they would have plenty of air - also their food - "oats, barley, the best oil cake, hay all mixed together - all trod in tile in 4 of my sacks which I told the Captain to send on by rail with the sheep, and two boxes for feeding and a new 'drifter' for drinking out of". He also gave the Captain instructions to send a 'telegraph' as soon as he put them on the rail in Quebec. The Spencer farm became known as Dorset Farm and was well known for its fine quality of sheep. One cargo was lost in a storm at sea which must have been a great blow financially.

NOTES ON THE REED FAMILY.

Huffman File.

Mrs. Ella Reed Wright's carefully prepared genealogy of the Reed family says: "Reed, Readd, Reid, and many other ways of spelling the word, as Rede, Rheade, are all derived from the word RHE, having its origin in Phoenicia. The third branch of the River Tyne in the north of England, is the River Reed, and the valley through which it flows is Redesville. Close by was the baronial home of Sir Reginald Reed.

The first Reed known to have come to America was John Reed who settled in Providence in 1660. Later he moved to Norwalk, Conn., purchasing a large tract of land. Canniff's Settlement of Upper Canada says: In the spring of 1789 a party of about fifty reached the Bay of Quinte, all refugee Loyalists, settling in Sidney and Thurlow. With them was William Reed, his wifem Nancy Nesbitt, sons John, William, Samuel and Solomon and five daughters.

- John married Esther Ethey.
- Samuel married a Miss Lake. (Her, Mary, O.C. 28 Feb 1807)
- Solomon and (Mar. Sarah, sister of above, dau of Nicholas Lake of Etn. Sidney. Her O.C. 28 Feb 1807)
- William, wives unknown. (Wm. Thurlow, mar. Experience d. Stephen Proye Dec 3-1-1827)
- Susan married Samuel Hough.
- Elizabeth married William Foster. (She dep. Thurlow 28-12-1791)
- Abigail married John Spencer, and later Daniel Way. (she b. 1780-1808) (PLBQ 916)
- Nancy married Elias Hoffman. (Mar. 3-1-1791)
- Sarah married Cyrus Parks.
